- A. Solicitation Protest. Unless a different deadline is specified in the solicitation document, prospective consultants may submit a written protest or request for change of particular solicitation provisions, specifications, or contract terms and conditions to the College no later than five calendar days prior to the close of the solicitation. Such protest or request for change shall include the reasons for the protest or request and any proposed changes to the solicitation provisions, specifications, or contract terms and conditions. No protest against selection of a consultant or award of a consultant contract, because of the contract terms and conditions, shall be considered after the deadline established for submitting such protest.
- B. Selection Protest. Unless a different deadline is specified in the solicitation document, a prospective consultant who has submitted a proposal and claims to have been aggrieved by the College's selection of a competing consultant, shall have fourteen calendar days after the College's notice of selection of the competing consultant to submit a written protest of the selection to the College. To be aggrieved for purposes of having a right to submit a protest, a proposer must claim that the proposer was the highest-ranked qualified consultant eligible for selection, i.e., the protester must show that all higher-ranked consultants were ineligible for selection because their proposals were nonresponsive or the consultants could not fulfill requirements and are not qualified. The College shall not consider a selection protest submitted after the time period established in this section nor any selection protest submitted after the deadline provided in the College's solicitation.
- C. The College President has authority to settle or resolve a written protest submitted in accordance with this section. The College President shall promptly issue a written decision on the protest. The action of the College President shall be the final action on the matter.

The exemption from public bidding for these types of contracts should not encourage favoritism in the awarding of public contracts or substantially diminish competition for public contracts and the award of these kinds of contracts without bidding will result in substantial cost savings to the College.

It shall be the policy of Tillamook Bay Community College, to efficiently and effectively manage the use of debt for the purpose of achieving institutional goals and objectives.

The College's Debt Management Policy and accompanying administrative rule provide for planning, issuing and monitoring debt and help ensure the availability of sufficient funds to meet debt service obligations while adequately providing for reoccurring operating requirements.

To meet the objectives of this policy the Board shall ensure that the College incurs and services all debts in a manner that will:

- A. Maintain a balanced relationship between debt service requirements and current operating needs.
- B. Maintain and enhance the College's ability to obtain access to credit markets, at favorable interest rates, in amounts needed for capital improvements and, if necessary, to provide essential services.
- C. Prudently incur and manage debt to minimize costs to the taxpayers and ensure that current decisions do not adversely affect the long-term financial standing of the College.
- D. Preserve the College's flexibility in capital financing by maintaining an adequate margin of statutory debt capacity.

The Board may authorize borrowing for the College, in compliance with state laws, by resolution stating the upper limit to be obligated at any one time. The president or designee may initiate emergency borrowing prior to Board approval should a quorum of the Board not be available to authorize borrowing. Long-term debt (due more than a year in the future) shall not be issued to fund normal operating needs.

Consensual sexual or mutually recognized romantic or dating relationships pose an apparent or actual conflict of interest if one of the parties in the relationship has responsibility for supervising, evaluating, directing or overseeing the other, or has the power to directly influence the other person's educational or employment status.

316.4 DISCIPLINARY STANDARDS

- A. The College believes that most employees prefer to work in an environment in which serious or repeated violations of the College's standards are not permitted. With that in mind, the infractions listed in 316.3 and 316.4 below describe behaviors which conflict with the College's accepted standards of conduct and warrant disciplinary action.
- B. The College believes these infractions are clear and require little explanation. However, if an employee has any questions, he/she may consult his/her supervisor or the Director of Facilities, Safety and Human Resources. Obviously, every possible infraction cannot be listed. Conduct not specifically mentioned will be disciplined according to the standards followed for what the College feels is the most equivalent type of conduct listed.
- C. Aside from the College's right and an employee's right to terminate the relationship at any time and for any reason, the College may issue verbal or written warnings, suspend, demote, or take other disciplinary action against employees for violation of rules or policies as the College deems appropriate.
- D. Each situation will be evaluated according to the circumstances involved, and the type of discipline administered may vary from that listed in each group based upon the College's determination of the seriousness of the offense.

- E. An employee's overall record may be considered in determining the appropriate degree of discipline to be imposed in a particular case. The College will determine what the facts are, whether discipline is warranted, how serious the violation is, and what level of discipline is appropriate.
- F. Nothing in this policy is intended to alter an employee's "at-will" status of employment. Employment may be terminated by the employee or the College at any time and for any reason, unless expressly stated otherwise in a written contract or employment agreement signed by the President of the College.
- G. If an employee believes he/she has been unfairly disciplined, the employee may use the grievance procedure in Article 317.

316.5 VIOLATIONS OF SIGNIFICANCE

- A. When a regular employee has committed a violation of significance, the employee will generally receive a written warning prior to termination. Employees on trial period or temporary employees will not generally be given a written warning prior to termination.
 - 1. A warning for different violations or infractions may be combined to determine the type of discipline administered.
 - 2. Written warnings will remain on an employee's record indefinitely, subject to Policy 305.E.
- B. These types of violations or infractions include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - 1. Unsatisfactory, careless, inaccurate, unreliable, or otherwise poor work performance or productivity.

10. Violation of the College's Drug and Alcohol Policy.
11. Violating any College policy presently in effect or subsequently issued which the College feels is serious enough to justify immediate discharge.

Tillamook Bay Community College recognizes sexual harassment as a form of sex discrimination under federal and state law.

It is the policy of Tillamook Bay Community College that all employees and students enjoy a positive and productive work and learning environment, free from all forms of discrimination, including sexual harassment. Any employee found to be sexually harassing any other employee or student will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Definition of Sexual Harassment

Unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, such as sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual violence is a form of sexual harassment and refers to physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person's will or where a person is incapable of giving consent. Gender-based harassment refers to unwelcome conduct based on an individual's actual or perceived sex, including harassment based on gender identity or nonconformity with sex stereotypes, and not involving conduct of a sexual nature. All of these types of sex-based harassment are forms of sex discrimination. Sexual harassment exists when:

- A. Such conduct is of such frequency and/or severity that it has the effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or academic performance to an objectively unreasonable level or creating a work or learning environment that is objectively intimidating, hostile or offensive; or
- B. The offender is attempting to compel or induce a specific person or persons to engage in or experience sexual conduct from which he/she has a legal right to abstain and has an objectively reasonable fear that negative personal consequences will occur if such conduct is not undertaken or tolerated.
- C. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of an individual's employment or academic advancement; or
- D. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting such individual.

Examples of conduct that could rise to the level of sexual harassment if the standards of A, B, C, or D are met may include, but are not limited to:

- Verbal harassment or abuse;
- Inappropriate touching, massaging or brushing against;

- Demands and/or subtle pressure for sexual favors;
- Jokes or pranks about sex or gender traits;
- Whistling or obscene gestures;
- A male tells a female she looks "hot";
- A female tells a male he has a nice derriere;
- Discussion in mixed groups of recent sexual exploits;
- Sexually explicit photos in a work or learning area.

Employee or Student Action

A report of sexual harassment may be made at any time, but preferably as close in time to the incident as possible. It is recommended that an employee or student who feels he/she is subjected to harassment:

- A. Tell the offender to stop. Say it firmly, without smiling or apologizing. It is not required that a complaint be made to the alleged harasser.
- B. Keep a diary or log of what is happening to you. Include direct quotes, any witnesses, or patterns to the harassment. Save any notes or letters sent to you by the alleged harasser; or
- C. Report the complaint to the Director of Facilities, Safety and Human Resources. Employees or students may opt to ask their supervisor or another administrator for assistance with this process.

Employees or students have the right to file a formal complaint with the Civil Rights Division of the Bureau of Labor and Industries.

District Action

Once a complaint is filed with the Director of Facilities, Safety and Human Resources, an investigation will begin, including:

- A. The complainant will be interviewed;
- B. The alleged harasser will be interviewed;

C. Witnesses may be contacted as well as others who may have information.

All interviews will be documented. The interview may be recorded to ensure accuracy as well as documented in writing. Interviews will be conducted individually and confidentially and may be conducted with the assistance of a second confidential employee of the College. The College will not tolerate any form of retaliation from the alleged harasser. The College will keep the information confidential except as otherwise requested by law.

Once the investigation is completed, written responses to both parties will be drafted stating that:

- A. The allegations remain unproven; or
- B. Sexual harassment has occurred; the harasser will be subject to corrective and/or disciplinary action up to and including dismissal or expulsion.

All Tillamook Bay Community College employees are required by Oregon law to report suspected cases of child abuse to the Oregon Department of Human Services (DHS) or law enforcement officials. This duty is personal to the individual College employee and applies twenty-four hours-a-day, seven days-a-week whether or not the employee is on work time. In addition, College employees and students must report to the College Director of Safety instances of inappropriate conduct when they witness, receive a report of, or reasonably believe an instance of child abuse has occurred. This requirement applies to cases of abuse that allegedly occur on campus, on property owned or leased by the College, or while members of the faculty, staff or student body are participating in a College-connected activity off campus. Reporting to the designated College official does not satisfy the legal duty to report to DHS or local law enforcement.

402.5 TEXTBOOK SELECTION

402.6 COMMUNITY EDUCATION FUND

The College's Community Education Program is a self-supporting program as determined by the receipts and expenditures of funds designated for this purpose. To facilitate this objective, the Chief Academic Officer or designee is authorized to:

1. Establish market rate tuition and fees to be charged to those who enroll or otherwise participate in Community Education offerings;
2. Hire instructors on a term-by-term contractual basis and pay 50% of community education course or workshop tuition (excluding fees) to the instructor as compensation

The purpose of this policy is to promote understanding and support of academic freedom and professional responsibility to the students, to the community, and to Tillamook Bay Community College.

404.1 Academic Freedom

Academic freedom is applied to teaching and other college-related activities. It is fundamental for the protection of the rights of the instructor in teaching and of the student to freedom in learning.

This institution is being operated for the common good and not to further the interest of either the individual instructor or the institution as a whole. The common good depends upon the free search for truth and its free exposition.

1. Instructors are entitled to freedom in their presentation and discussion of the subject matter, as outlined in the Course Content Outcome Guide.
2. Instructors are entitled to full freedom in professional development activities, including publication of the results.
3. Instructors are citizens, members of a learned profession, and members of the educational institution. When they speak or write as citizens, they should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes responsibilities. Thus, an instructor should clearly state to a public audience that he/she is communicating as a private citizen and not as a representative of the College. All employees should consider that the public may judge Tillamook Bay Community College by their communications.
4. As members of the Institution, instructors seek above all to be effective teachers. Although they observe the stated regulations of the institution, they maintain their right to disagree and seek possible revisions.
5. Instructors are encouraged to be involved in their community and, as members of the community, have the rights and obligations of any citizen. They determine the amount and character of their civic and community involvement outside the institution with due regard to their responsibilities within it. As citizens engaged in a profession that depends upon freedom for its health and integrity, instructors have particular obligations to promote conditions of free inquiry and to further public understanding of academic freedom.

404.1 Personal Freedom

Faculty and instructors who have citizenship and exercise their rights, as well as race, religion, color, age, national origin, disability, marital status, sex, or sexual orientation shall not be grounds for discipline or discrimination. The Board recognizes that the personal lives of instructors are of concern to the Board only as it affects job performance.
